

Candidates Debate Tuesday At Sun Rally -- Plus Comedy Skit!

HELLO, ADLAI! HELLO, IKE! These scenes from "Sweet Land of Liberty," hilarious one-act political satire to be presented at the Sun-sponsored political rally at Acalanes High School auditorium next Tuesday night, aren't exactly what you'd call typical "campaign shots." But they're examples of the fun in store. Above, Adlai (Roy Elke), holding on to that joke book, admires the mink coat worn and displayed by a beautiful red-head, (Mrs. Elke). Below, in Napoleonic pose, Ike (Ralph Johnson, at right) assures Nixon (Leroy Sowers), "You're my boy." The skit, written by Joe Connor, starts at 8, and will be followed by debate by Assembly candidates Donald D. Doyle, Republican, and Harold E. Mutnick, Democrat, and by Congressional candidates John F. Baldwin Jr., Republican, and Robert L. Condon, Democrat.

Scout Fund Drive Winds Up in Area

The Boy Scout-Girl Scout fund drive has officially been brought to an end in Orinda.

Mrs. George W. Fink and Mrs. John McFarland, co-chairman of the drive, are now making the last minute checkup and final tallying for the drive.

Over 150 men and women who volunteered their time helped make the drive a success.

In Sleepy Hollow, the entire job of doorbell ringing, with the exception of Mrs. William Brobeck, was done by men.

Under the direction of Charles Gibbs, the committee of workers was made up of Richard Kendall, Frank C. Collins, William H. Mack, Donald C. McMacken, Robert Boyle, H. J. Caldwell, Vernon L. Hudelson, Ernest S. Starkman, Murray D. Studley, Allan Waddell and Frank Gillespie.

Others who helped were Stanley Soren, R. Harold Hartsough Jr., Dan S. Carter, Richard H. Farmer and Dr. W. H. Hanford Jr.

Cooker Explodes In Coffee Shop

Nearly $1000 in damage occurred Tuesday when a pressure cooker blew Marge's Coffee Shop at 19 Moraga Highway exploded.

The accident happened during the 8 a.m. rush hour when the safety valve on the pressure cooker failed to work.

The stove was destroyed when the lid of the cooker smashed into it. In order to replace the stove, one wall will have to be torn down.

Also destroyed was a window in the back door which was knocked out.

"Chicken was sent flying all over the coffee shop," Evie Marshall, an employee, explained.

Marge Smith is owner of the coffee shop.

Autumn: Leaves, Thermometers Start To Fall

Autumn is upon us and along with the leaves, thermometers in this area have also started to fall.

During the week from October 16 through Wednesday, the hottest day was last Friday when a mere 82 degrees was noticed.

Early Tuesday morning, a chill of 41 degrees, the coldest point of the week, was recorded.

No rain but some fog composed the rest of Orinda weather.

Baldwin, Condon Mutnick, Doyle To Argue Issues

Next Tuesday night's the date and Acalanes High School auditorium is the place — for this area's major political event prior to the November 4 elections.

Starting at 8 p.m. a program of serious debate by the Republican and Democratic candidates for Congress and the State Assembly, and of top entertainment will be offered free, under sponsorship of The SUN.

The SUN sincerely believes there is nothing immodest about describing this admission-free rally as a major political event, for here is what will be offered:

A hilarious one-act political satire, "Sweet Land of Liberty," poking good-natured fun at Republicans and Democrats alike. Author is Joe Connor of Lafayette; producer and director is his wife, Wilma.

Debate between Assembly candidates Donald D. Doyle, Republican, and Harold E. Mutnick, Democrat. Debate between Congressional candidates John F. Baldwin Jr., Republican, and Assemblyman Robert L. Condon, Democrat.

In addition to which, there'll be a question-and-answer period for the firing of queries at the candidates.

The debates will be on down-to-earth issues in the candidates' campaigns. Regular debate procedure

Don't Come 'til 8:20--Unless...

Don't come to next Tuesday night's Sun-sponsored political rally until about 8:20 — unless you have a sense of humor. If you're a thin-skinned Republican or a thin-skinned Democrat, who can't laugh at satirical barbs from the opposing camp, you won't want to see "Sweet Land of Liberty," Joe Connor's hilarious one-act skit.

By arriving at 8:20 you'll be in time for the debates between Assembly candidates Donald D. Doyle and Harold E. Mutnick, and between Congressional candidates John F. Baldwin Jr. and Robert L. Condon. And you'll avoid being annoyed by the no-punches-pulled fun-poking at both Republicans and Democrats by the one-act dramatic production.

However, you DO have a sense of humor and can laugh at good-natured ribbing, you'll want to see "Sweet Land of Liberty." In that case, be at the Acalanes auditorium at 8 sharp.

will be followed. The Assembly candidates will debate first; then the Congressional candidates will "haul off."

Ernest Spiegel, well-known attorney prominent in community affairs, will act as moderator for the program.

ORDER OF SPEAKING is determined by coin-tossing. Condon won the Condon-Baldwin toss, so he'll open the Congressional candidates' debate with 12 minutes for his main presentation; Baldwin will follow with 15 minutes for his main argument and rebuttal, and Condon will close with three minutes of rebuttal.

Doyle and Mutnick toss a coin this week to decide the order in their debate, which will follow the same procedure — 12 minutes for the first speaker's main argument, 15 minutes for the next speaker's main argument and rebuttal, and three minutes for the first speaker's closing rebuttal.

Thus, each speaker will have a total of 15 minutes. Mrs. Bess Whitcomb, public speaking teacher at Contra Costa Junior College, will be official timekeeper and will be the expert who will decide on any debate-procedure problems that may arise.

THE ONE-ACT SKIT, lasting about 15 minutes, will precede the debates. It will truly be an "all-star" production, for it will include Ike, Adlai, Nixon, Sparkman, Truman, Margaret Truman, McCarthy, Hiss, a beautiful red-head in a mink coat — and even a Keystone cop.

The "Sweet Land of Liberty" cast includes: Ike, Ralph Johnson; Adlai, Roy Elke; Nixon, Leroy Sowers; Sparkman, Ernest Dix; Truman, Beverly Miles; Margaret Truman, Adrienne Sowers; McCarthy, Erwin Matson; Hiss, Ernest Dix; Keystone cop, Keith Lynn M. C. for the skit is Dan Welte. A few roles still remain to be filled this week.

No question about it — the SUN-sponsored political rally next Tuesday, 8 p.m., at Acalanes High School auditorium is an event you won't want to miss!

Lot Size Report Highlights Soon

A detailed, comprehensive summary of the 20-page report on lot sizes by the Cardinet subcommittee, consisting of actual excerpts of highlights from the report, will be published in The SUN in the near future.

Watch for this article, which will accurately quote many important passages of the controversial report and quarter-acre lot size recommendation.

"In practice, the quarter-acre size would tend to become the maximum lot size, since subdivisions would plan subdivisions that way, in order to sell more lots to accommodate the many thousands of potential home-owners."

MANY OBJECTORS, including William A. Bailey Jr., temporary chairman of the recently-formed Independent Citizens' Committee on Zoning, maintain that the recommendation means "maximum," pointing to the Cardinet subcommittee's recommendation No. 1:

"No area of our county shall be burdened with a requirement of more than a quarter acre, except . . ."

That wording, according to Cardinet, does not convey the actual meaning. Better wording, he says, would be:

"The minimum lot size for all areas should be a quarter acre, except . . ."

Supervisors Indicate 3-Month Delay In Lot Size Hearing as Protests Rise

As protests from this area to the proposed countywide quarter-acre size for homestead lots continued to mount, the Board of Supervisors indicated this week that public hearings on the matter will probably be held in about three months.

A letter from the recently formed Independent Citizens' Committee on Zoning requested a four-month delay. Supervisor H. L. Cummings, chairman of the county board, instructed Mary Smith, deputy county clerk, to write the committee, asking it to try to have its proposals ready within three months.

ALSO ON HAND this week were protest letters from the Happy Valley Improvement Association and from Gerald E. Brown of 2460 San Miguel Drive, Walnut Creek. The Happy Valley letter stated that "a preliminary study" of the proposal for "maximum lot size of a quarter acre . . . indicates it to be an ill-considered move, fostered by selfish interests," and described the arguments advanced by the Cardinet subcommittee as "specious and in some instances ridiculous."

The letter concluded with a request for postponement of action until such time as the public had had opportunity to acquaint itself thoroughly with the proposal.

Miss Smith said many other protest letters were coming in, and that, at Cummings' instruction, she was notifying all writers that the Board of Supervisors is eager to receive recommendations, that all suggestions will be well-considered and that there will be no action until full public hearing has been conducted.

THE INDEPENDENT CITIZENS' Committee on Zoning, through its acting chairman, William A. Bailey Jr., made its request for a four-month delay following last week's lengthy conference by the Board of Supervisors, the County Planning Commission and the Citizens' Committee on Lot Size and Zoning Methods, Sewage Disposal, Water Pollution, Flood Control and Drainage. It was a subcommittee of this group which recently proposed a general countywide quarter-acre standard for homestead lots.

Questions repeatedly asked included "Is it maximum or minimum?" and "Why change the present Zoning Ordinance?" Despite extensive talk by Cardinet and others, the meeting adjourned with question marks still hovering in the air.

Upshot of the discussion, agreed to on recommendation by Frank Cardinet, was that the subject was to be taken up next month's Civic Affairs meeting. Cardinet said he would be glad to appear again at that time.

ALTHOUGH CARDINET stated, "Our recommendation is that the minimum lot size be a quarter-acre," several persons demanded clarification in the wording of the subcommittee report, declaring it meant "maximum." The "minimum" and "maximum" were batted about and were never entirely clarified at the meeting.

Later, Cardinet explained this further to The Sun. See separate story.

AT ONE POINT, George Hauerken asked: "Now it's a quarter-acre for agricultural zones. Why change?"

"I'm with you on that," Cardinet replied. "That's how I got into this thing. But the other group (the Farm Bureau) wanted a half-acre minimum."

DONN SIGERSON of the Orinda Association's planning committee and third vice-chairman of the Independent Citizens' Committee on Zoning, took sharp issue with Cardinet's declaration that the deed restriction provision in the Cardinet subcommittee proposal, whereby property owners could obtain a minimum standard greater than quarter-acre, was "practically a legal impossibility" and "a snare and a delusion."

"Referring to the Cardinet report's reference to monthly incomes of four figures being necessary to maintain half-acre homesteads adequately, Sigerson said: 'I live in a section where the lots are all half-acre, and I don't know of any four-figure people there.'"

"VERY CLEARLY," he stressed, "the proposal does away with Master Planning and the work which many citizens have done over a

Bad Check Passer Gets Prison Term

James Thomas Dotson, 38, Berkeley, who attempted to pass a bad check in a Lafayette bar, was sent to San Quentin last week by Superior Judge Homer W. Patterson.

Deputy sheriffs reported Dotson admitted passing checks in six other business firms in Orinda, Lafayette and Danville. The checks ranged from $50 to $100.

Dotson also confessed passing nine bad checks in Oakland, Berkeley and Sacramento which came to a total of $846.

PGE Power Line Plan Encounters Orinda Protests

Plans for Pacific Gas and Electric Company to erect a new 220,000-volt power line through Orinda Country Club property evoked vigorous protest at Monday night's meeting of the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee at Orinda School.

Spokesman for the opposition was George Hauerken, secretary of the Country Club, who inquired:

"WHY DOESN'T PGE run the power line over the top of the hill, where only the cattle will look at it? I don't know, but I suspect it might be a little more expensive."

"It would be an easy thing for the board of the club to grant this easement, but we feel it our duty to bring this up as a community problem. I can't understand why PGE wants to run this power line right through the middle of Orinda, where we have our homes. It will be an eyesore and possibly a source of danger."

HENLEY WORTHINGTON, Berkeley district manager for PGE, explained that a 220,000-volt line is necessary because of the area's growth, and that the strip for the present 110,000-volt line is not wide enough. So the Country Club has been asked to grant the firm an additional 32½-foot easement for right of way.

"When we started to purchase land for the power lines here 30 years ago, the Country Club wasn't here," he said.

"WE DON'T LOOK at it from a club standpoint," Hauerken retorted, "but from the viewpoint of club members who are residents of Orinda. I've talked with a lot of people about this, and, without exception, they're mad."

Zach Montgomery asked if the existing 110,000-volt line couldn't be rerouted, leaving an additional load. George U. Wood of the Orinda Association asked, "Why couldn't the wires be put underground?"

"IT'S AN ECONOMIC matter," Worthington answered. "It would cost about 20 times more."

C. R. Machen, East Bay Division superintendent of the PGE Electric Department, said he did not believe there are any 220,000-volt underground lines in the United States, although there is one around the city of Paris, France.

Worthington pointed out that there are over 2400 residences in Orinda, as against 700 10 years ago.

ON MOTION BY Montgomery, it was agreed that the delegates discuss the problem with their respective local associations and report back to the next Civic Affairs meeting. Hauerken was named by Underwood as an "ex-officio committee of one" to keep in touch with Worthington.

Worthington agreed to be present at the November meeting. With him and Machen Monday night was E. G. Lambert of the PGE Engineering Department.

Mothers Hear About Pacifica

The "Pacifica" theme, which began as a home decoration idea, has now developed into a complete way of life, affecting even children's upbringing, according to Harry Jackson, executive vice president of Jackson's Home Furnishings in Oakland and Northern California, and the originator of "Pacifica."

Jackson told of the sparking of his idea to national recognition before members of the Orinda Mothers Club meeting Tuesday at the Orinda Community Church.

"PACIFICA" MAKES the child an important factor of the home

unit, using the Islands' fresh and open approach to life," Jackson said, "whereas the 'traditional' or European concept of the home related the child to the care of a nanny, if you could afford it. The fragile, perishable fabrics used in traditional treatment of the home led to a 'mustn't touch' attitude," he explained.

Jackson emphasized his feeling that people should live life as they like, paying less attention to traditional and inherent ideas from Europe and more attention to contemporary or new civilizations.

He is a University of California graduate.

A Top Drum Majorette

Joan Little, fourth grade daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. Little 19 El Verano, was on the Walnut Creek drum majorette team during the Walnut Festival. She won second prize in her first parade, delivering a smart salute to the judges and wearing a white satin costume trimmed with silver braid.

"It is sort of phony to surround yourself with traditional things in a world that won't allow you to be traditional," the speaker declared. From the cultures of the Pacific Ocean area are coming answers more suitable to meeting today's social and economic conditions than those emanating from Europe, Jackson said. The "Pacifica" theme, he added, now involves, as well as home decoration, landscaping, entertaining, rearing of children and the whole family's point of view.

ON THE MOTHERS Club program with Jackson was Ruth Strachan, Jackson's fashion coordinator, who illustrated her talk with new fabrics in the "Pacifica" mood.

A business meeting preceded the speakers, at which this school year's club budget was presented. Refreshments were served following the meeting, with Glorieta third grade room mothers serving as hostesses. These included Mrs. David W. Hilger for Mrs. Linda Dodd's room; Mrs. George Fink for Miss Mary Sheffer's room and Mrs. Henry Harris for Mrs. Dorothy Hurley's room. Also a hostess was Mrs. Robert Boconini, who is replacing Mrs. Fink as room mother for Miss Sheffer. Mrs. Miles B. Sutcliffe, vice-president and program chairman for the group, introduced the speakers.

About our happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

FOR HEAVEN'S SAKE, GUESS WHAT THEY ARE UP TO NOW! The ladies of the Orinda Branch of the Children's Hospital, we mean — they must each eat a box of wheateas for breakfast on the second Tuesday of every month, because by the time they convene at 10:30 for the regular meeting they are so full of steam they are ready to move mountains.

However, their previous mountainous successes are mere molehills in comparison to this one. Seriously speaking and by way of explanation — there has been a feeling for a long time that we homebodies would like to get to forums, hear interesting speakers on cultural, scientific, medical and engineering subjects, but we just can't drag ourselves out of beautiful Orinda to attend to these matters.

So the Orinda Branch is bringing the mountain to Mohammed — and or to Mr. Mohammed, for this is to be a series of evening affairs so that everyone can benefit. Yes, a lecture series of top speakers such as:

On January 12 — Ruth and Scott Newhall — he the editor of the Sunday Chronicle and she the editor of "This World" — will speak on "Gathering the News" — we personally will be particularly fascinated with this one and we imagine that we personally could give them a few choice methods which might not previously have occurred to them.

February 2 — Professor Wendel Stanley, Nobel prize winner for his work on viruses, will speak on "Virus" — a subject of deep concern to all of us — particularly in February.

March 9 — Professor Robert Kerner (father of our local Orinda Rose Shurtliff and grandfather of Cathy, Bob and Christine. He is Sather professor of history and director of the Institute of Slavic Studies — recently returned from Europe, will speak on "The Gathering Storm along the Iron Curtain."

April 13 — President Lynn White of Mills College will speak on "Revolution in Modern Thinking", which will be an erudite discourse on current thought trends and not as you might suspect — a revolution of modern thinking which comes as a direct result of being the president of a young ladies' seminary.

May 11 — Professor Parker Trask is the surprise factor. He has a specialty you wouldn't believe if we told you — as a matter of fact, we are not sure we can wait until May 11 because we can't believe it either — if any of you know about Professor Trask's specialty, for goodness sake don't tell.

Dr. Charles Camp, whom Orinda shares with the University of California, will introduce the speakers, and there will be a little get-together with punch and cookies after each talk so that you may ask the speaker that question you have been harboring for the previous hour.

The place: Orinda Country Club; the time: 8 o'clock. How to get tickets: Call any branch member or Mrs. Ernest Kahl at Orinda 7321. She is always available because she has four children and has to be.

Seriously again — don't you think this is the sort of thing we will enjoy very much? — all due respect to parties, movies and golf, there comes a time when we thirst for a little up-to-date information on the things of great interest taking place in our fast-moving world of today. Personal note — don't anyone call us for tickets — just happened to recite the list of speakers to a couple of friends and — zowie — our tickets are all gone and they haven't even been printed yet.

AND NOW MORE ABOUT OUR TRIP — you thought you were all through with that last week but you made a mistake.

In Dearborn, Mich., there is a reconstructed tribute to Henry Ford called Greenfield Village, where famous buildings have been moved and reassembled to form a complete village in the flavor of the pre-industrial (pre-Henry Ford) period. An old grist mill and printing press are in actual operation — a glass blower performs before your very eyes — you go through Luther Burbank's grandfather's home, Ersel Ford's playhouse, Thomas Edison's workshop, the courthouse where Abraham Lincoln held court in Illinois. There's the chair where Lincoln was sitting when he was assassinated. A dear little stone house from the Cotswolds in England, complete with photographs of its undoing and redoing, which was no small job.

A cooper's cottage, a pharmacy where you gathered up your medicine purely on its reputation for having helped someone else with similar complaints. A weaver's loom, where we learned that word "spinster" comes from the term used for unmarried young ladies who used to go to busy households to help with the spinning.

A jewelry store with a fine collection of old watches — one of Mr. Ford's hobbies — including many beautifully decorated watch keys from which the present-day Phi Beta Kappa and various fraternity keys get their fundamental shape.

Also, Mr. Ford's original masterpiece — an automobile made from an assortment of utensils and odds and ends you wouldn't believe possible, in the door of which was too small to let it out so he had to knock out the wall and make another door. The ways of genius are fraught with frustration — the masterpiece made such an all-fired racket that the city of Dearborn passed an ordinance forbidding him to wind it up during certain hours of the day.

A charming old Ford of remote vintage painted a brilliant red and decorated with golden scrolls traveled around the streets, and you were indeed startled to look from that to over yonder where the present-day Ford testing track was accommodating a number of station wagons and trucks whirling at breakneck speed just to find out for sure whether or not they could.

We don't choose to eulogize Fords in general or Ford in particular, but it is a psychological jolt to walk out of this village in the spirit of 1880 and go to the assembly plant and watch a complete automobile put together before your very eyes in 90 minutes; And to make the whole performance even more unbelievable the newly-created and completely gasolined automotive contrivance was driven off the end of the assembly line without even slowing up the conveyor belt. It is our personal opinion that that is going just a little too far.

IN MINNEAPOLIS, WHILE OUR HUSBAND was conversing with the other Bank Loan officers who were attending the Robert Morris Associates Convention in the Nicolet Hotel, mezzanine floor second door to the left, we went galloping through the General Mills Betty Crocker model kitchens and plant.

In spite of the fact that we had planned to ignore cooking as an all-consuming occupation for a period of at least three weeks, we were quite fascinated to discover the lengths to which Betty Crocker will go to perfect a recipe. The dining room for the staff is a beautiful replica of an Old New England room — the wall panelling and furnishing, having been brought from New England, including a pewter collection and a cunning Franklin stove.

HAVE YOU BEEN TO FAIRYLAND RECENTLY? If not, the roof garden of the Utah Hotel in Salt Lake is the place to go. We arrived hungry as usual, so we washed our dirty little faces and headed for the top story for dinner.

All walls were of glass, softened by modern type planting. Three sides overlooked the starry lights of the city and the fourth opened onto a view of the top spires of the Mormon Temple, which was dramatically lighted from behind the spires in such fashion as to make it look like a crystal cathedral.

It gave you the feeling of not being real — a remarkable psychological effect from an area where cocktails are not sold and the independent spirits won't even admit to such generally accepted conditions as daylight saving time.

By next week we will surely have finished the laundry, so will have time to scrape around and get some real news for you.

That is all.

LOOKS LIKE PLENTY of joyful preparation for the big annual Fall Festival and Bazaar at Orinda Community Church, to be staged next Wednesday by the Women's Guild, assisted by all groups of the church. Left to right in this unusual "conference" picture are several workers on various phases of the event — Mrs. Owen Jones, sewing booth; Dick Copenhagen, surprise program; Mrs. Donald Anderson, dinner; Mrs. Robert Brown, children's games, and Roberta Krotz, children's games. Each holds something symbolic of the particular activity — but wonder just what kind of surprise Dick is offering Mrs. Anderson? — SUN Photo by Mattson

State of Union Enjoys Opening Night Success

The first of three performances of "State of the Union," the Orinda Dramateurs' fall production, was presented last night in the Acalanes High School auditorium.

The play, which is one of the most ambitious ever attempted by the group, received the approval of all present.

IT WILL NOW be shown tomorrow night with curtain time at 8:15 p.m. and again on November 1. Tickets may be obtained at either the door or from Mrs. Wirtabel Harris at Orinda 2400.

Robert Atkinson heads the large cast as Grant Matthews, presidential aspirant, while Dorothy Hanford is seen as the candidate's wife. Others are Harry Rasmussen, Edward O'Brien, Lou Warner, Patricia Winkworth, Monica Eschen, Donald French, Phil Simmons, Bruce Winkworth, Leonard Nachman, Frank Wright, Luke Kentfield, Betty Reynolds, Frances Omo, Margaret Kozak and Keene Pettengill.

KENTFIELD is the play's producer; Malcolm Lowman, stage manager; James Stanislawsky, set designer; Jeanette Wright, properties; Barbara Warner, costume supervisor; Patricia Winkworth, publicity; Norma Betz, programs, and Hilda Robert, assistant to the director.

"State of the Union," written by Lindsay and Crouse, enjoyed a long Broadway run.

Because it's timely, anyone affected by the political fervor of the present campaign will get a real "kick" out of the play.

Hausken pointed out that people moved to this area to have "plenty of elbow room." "They came to live in the country," he said. "If they wanted to live in homes right next to the neighbors, they'd have stayed in the city."

"Who is the author of the report?" Joseph D. DeCosta asked. "L. E. Mullen, the subcommittee chairman, is responsible for the actual wording," Cardinet said, "but the thought is the consensus of the subcommittee." (Mullen is president of the Contra Costa County Title Company.)

Sermon Subject: What Time Is It?

On Sunday, at both the 8 and 11 a.m. services, Pastor Luther Berven of Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Lafayette, will speak on the sermon topic, "What Time Is It?"

"When we are engaged in a worthy project and we know that time is growing short, we work with the greatest of zeal," he comments. "We see the tremendous energy expended by the various candidates as election time draws near."

"The Christian, realizing that there is much work to be done and also realizing that he is mortal and will not be on this earth for more than a few years, is always keenly aware of the passing of time. Time is a precious gift from God, too valuable to be used for any other purpose than for serving God and one's fellowman."

Two Sermons Set On 'Temptations Of the Master'

"The Temptations of the Master" will be the subject of the sermon at Lafayette Covenant Church Sunday morning and the Sunday following. The sermons will be based on the Matthew account of Jesus' temptations as recorded in the 4th chapter.

This Sunday's subject will deal with the nature and significance of the temptations Jesus faced and how they relate to ours, and the following Sunday's sermon will deal with the temptations, and how we may meet ours successfully.

"Everybody, of course, has to face temptation every day, whether in the home or in his work or his business dealings," Rev. Joel S. Peterson, the pastor said. "There are temptations to dishonesty, temptations to take the easy way, temptations to unclean and sinful living."

"What are the resources with which we can meet our temptations? They are in the power and Spirit of Christ. It is possible by His strength to win out. 'Sin shall not have dominion over you.'"

At the 7 o'clock service Rev. Peterson will speak on "A Devine Remembrance, or, Elsewhere's Quest," basing his sermon on the story of Abraham's servant, as related in Genesis, the 24th chapter.

Covenant Women Have Their Birthday Party

At the annual birthday party of the Covenant Women's Fellowship tonight at 8 at Lafayette Covenant Church, the daughters will present a devotional program for the mothers.

Rebirth of Hope Sermon Topic at Methodist Church

The sermon Sunday at Lafayette Community Methodist Church will be "The Rebirth of Hope," at both the 8:30 and 11 a. m. services.

The pastor, Bishop George A. Miller and Rev. Harry E. Shaner, point out that Sunday is Reformation Sunday throughout the Protestant world. "We usually date the beginning of the reformation from that day when Martin Luther nailed his 95 theses to that door of the castle church, inviting debate," they say. "The date was October 31, 1517."

"In a day that needs sound protests, we can do no less than honor him who lead the great Protestant movement. The church of today is confronted with the greatest opportunity for developing spiritual growth in the world. We must remember that the Church is not a group of people."

"Let us speak out and be real protesters in this time in history that needs clear protest against the debasement of person, the moral decay and the laxness of morality."

Group Formed by Covenant Youth

At the youth organization meeting last Sunday the following officers and committees were elected at the Lafayette Covenant Church.

President, Dave Helman; vice-president, Bob Peterson; secretary, Janice Everson; treasurer, Hazel Knowlton.

Devotional committee: Marilyn Peterson, Charlene McNutt, Skip Bergeson; athletic committee: Bob Peterson, Nancy Herrmann, Dick Ball; Social committee: Jerry Ball, Hazel Knowlton; Carolyn Peterson, Ezra Nelson is the adviser on the devotional committee, George Wood on the athletic and Mrs. Elsie Knowlton on the social.

The advisers and youth officers, together with the pastor, will constitute the Youth Council. The young people are looking forward to an active youth program this winter. They will meet for their devotional program on Sunday evenings at 6.

Assembly Youth Host Covenant Youth Group

The Covenant youth group were guests at a Halloween party sponsored by the Assembly youth group, the Christ's Ambassadors, at the Ingvaldson home on Birchaven Court last Friday evening.

Games, spooky doings, ducking for apples, a delicious lunch and a brief sing-spiration rounded out the program. Pastor and Mrs. J. K. Soper and Mrs. Olson of the Assembly Church were in charge of the evening's activities.

Canyon Callings . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Kies have a visitor, for as long as they can talk her into staying — Mrs. Elizabeth Farris of San Francisco, Mrs. Kies' mother.

Kenny Green, formerly living with the Irwins in Canyon, his wife and six-week-old daughter, Cindy, were recent visitors here. In the U. S. Air Force, Kenny recently transferred from an Arizona base to Camp Stoneman, and after a short leave will be enroute to Korea.

THE JAMES JACOB family, former Canyon residents and now of Hayward were visitors last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Compher.

Cub Pack 57's Pack meeting, held last Friday evening at Moraga School was conducted by Assistant Cubmaster Greg Kazar. The program was in line with U.S. mail service, which both dens have been studying.

A skit by the Canyon den portrayed postal history from pony express days up to present-day air mail. The Moraga boys told of the pack's trip through the Oakland Post Office.

Group singing and refreshments concluded the evening.

The Homer Pries with young son, Chris, have returned from a leisurely ten-day trailer trip through Northern California and Oregon. While in Corvallis they visited elder son Jerry who is attending Oregon State.

The first copy of "The School Gazette" is out. The new name was selected by vote for the school newspaper and all items will be written by the students as part of their Language Arts program, with the exception of an occasional item by Principal Masker.

On the staff this year are: Anice Compher, Editor-in-Chief; Brad Day, News Editor and Billy Jacobs, Sports Editor.

JUDY MILLER, Barbara Wells, Maurine Malvey, Billy Jacobs, Denny Shally and Brad Day were guests of Gilbert Scarborough at Rollerland in Oakland last Saturday at a sating party held to celebrate Gilbert's fourteenth birthday.

Bud Garanson who has a Berkeley "sharpen" shop, has set up a duplicate set of tools in his home here. He will sharpen saws, scissors and garden tools, including lawn mowers — the latter definitely not a Canyon tool.

Political note: Pollyanna wonders what the outcome would be if both parties, instead of lambasting, were to say only nice things about the other.

Have you tried that old Swedish health cure — blood-letting? A group of Canyonites took the blood-letting treatment offered by the American Red Cross in Lafayette last Monday, and all report feeling swell.

THERE'S A HEX ON that particular stretch of road between the store and the railroad tracks. The third car in as many years went over the back and turned over on its side last week. As was the case in the other accidents, Mr. Wilder, the driver, reported no injuries — except to the car.

YOUNG MEN who attended a birthday dinner party last Monday evening at Billy Chessum's home, honoring his ninth birthday were: Jimmy Chessum, Chris Mead, Bob Leuthold, Billy Jacobs, Denny Shally, Timmy Crawford, Gary Miller, Johnnie Thune, Ronnie Scholfin, Gerald Goss and Buddy Seeds.

Cat Chat: Julie, well known Canyon cat, missing for twenty-four hours, was found mysteriously locked between the window and screen in a closet of her owner's home. The family is at a loss to explain the strange imprisonment, but Julie pointedly snarls at Jasper, the family's new coal-black kitten.

Kid Quip: Meeting him in the post office, our primary teacher asked her little first-grader, Randy, if he had learned anything that day. Answered Randy, "Well, you oughta know — you were there all day."

Men: Getting your muscles in good working order for "Work Day" at the School, Sunday? A good hot ham dinner will be provided at noon by the women of the Community Club, and a lunch time attraction will be a volleyball game, Camp Fire Girls vs. Mothers.

Construction work on the new Lafayette Sea Food Grotto at 3806 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, between the Tunnel Inn and Lusiani's Restaurant, is expected to be completed the middle of November.

An entire new building is now being erected at the site of the old restaurant, which was torn down almost a month ago.

Don Patton is doing the construction work. It is expected that this work will cost approximately $14,800.

The new restaurant will have seating capacity for 70 persons and will have the newest of decorations and comfort.

Adolph and Barbara Panfilis will remain owners and seafood, chicken and steak dinners will again be featured.

Three Injured in Canyon Accident

Three persons were injured in a two car collision which occurred a short distance above Canyon store at about 4:15 p.m. last Sunday.

The smash-up happened when a car driven by Richard Bierman, 16, of Canyon hit the auto of Gus Wilborn of Oakland, in which Mrs. Wilborn was the only passenger.

Wilborn received minor cuts while his wife, seated on the side which received the full impact of the crash, suffered shock and back bruises.

Bierman was taken to Concord Community Hospital in a bad state of shock. He had numerous cuts and a possible concussion.

Skidmarks showed that Bierman's car, coming around a half-turn, had braked sharply in loose gravel and had skidded some 20 to 30 yards forward and across the road, hitting Wilborn's car broadside.

The crash turned Bierman's car on its right side and sent Wilborn's careering across the road, spraying gasoline from an unseparated tank.

Robert Rawlins, who witnessed the accident from the roof of his house told California Highway Patrolman that he heard a car speeding and that he saw Wilborn's auto start to move. However, Wilborn maintains he had halted at the edge of the road to watch for possible oncoming traffic.

Canyon residents have long tried to get "slow" and "caution" signs along Pinehurst Road, which has many blind curves.

"Higher torque and horsepower ratings, achieved without sacrifice of fuel economy, are new engine features."

"Unchanged in the new Deluxe and Manhattan models is the basic Kaiser body styling which has won an unprecedented number of international styling awards in the last two years."

Doyle, Mutnick Exchange Word-Blows— Open Letter, Reply Enliven Campaign

Going into the final rounds of their campaigns for election as 10th District Assemblyman, candidates Donald D. Doyle, Republican, and Harold E. Mutnick, Democrat, have been doing some heated sparring. It's all leading up to the decision by Referee John Q. Public come election day, Tuesday, November 4.

In a recent Open Letter to Mutnick, Doyle asked:

"WHY DID YOU SAY, I have no labor support, nor do I want any, when you were asked a question from the floor, Wednesday, April 23, at a meeting of the Lafayette Improvement Association? Why did you make this statement and then seek labor support from every unit of organized labor in our district?"

"Why do you make false statements about your occupation and thus mislead the public? Isn't it true that your registration in Alameda County showed you to be an attorney when that was not your occupation? Isn't it true that when you first registered in Contra Costa County on October 31, 1951, that you gave your occupation as Attorney, when that was not the source of your livelihood? Isn't it true that you resigned from the Veterans' Administration on March 15 of this year and that on March 27 you changed your registration to show that you were a Veterans' Administration Attorney? Isn't it true that you were never an attorney for the Veterans' Administration, but that you had the title of Claims Adjudicator instead?"

"Isn't it true that you have never been fully employed in any sort of private enterprise during your brief stay in California? Isn't it true that you have been unemployed since the 15th day of March, while you have been seeking a position that pays $300 a month? What is the source of your income, Mr. Mutnick? I am sure that the people of our district would like to know how a man who has never earned over $500 a year in his life can be unemployed and spending campaign funds for seven long months."

"ISN'T IT TRUE that you have tried to tell the people of this district that I have been a lobbyist for the Insurance Trust (whether true or not) when you know that it is a felony to lobby unless you are registered with the Secretary of State as a legislative representative? Don't you know that I have never been so registered? As a private insurance broker, I have appeared before various legislative committees on insurance matters, and don't you know that the men of whom you speak so highly in your literature sponsored some of this legislation in Sacramento?"

"Why is it, Mr. Mutnick, that you conduct your campaign on national issues, such as the Taft-Hartley Act and foreign policy when you know full well that neither you, nor I, could do anything about such matters in the California State Assembly? Isn't this because you know that you cannot attack the progressive record of Governor Earl Warren's administration to which I heartily subscribe, or is this because your short residence in our state and shorter still in our district, leaves you with little knowledge of the accomplishments of Governor Warren's Administration?"

TO WHICH MUTNICK promptly retorted with a statement including the following:

"I am an attorney by profession, holding a law degree from Columbia University, and have been duly licensed as an attorney by the State of New York. Upon leaving military service in 1946 I stayed in California and was employed as a government attorney by the Veterans Administration. My technical title with the VA was Alternate Attorney Reviewer and Adjudicator, and the requirements prescribed by the United States Civil Service Commission restricted the position to duly licensed attorneys. Since I was employed as a government attorney and did not then contemplate private practice in California, it was unnecessary for me to seek membership in the California State Bar. As I have said candidly on a good many occasions, I am not licensed to engage in the private practice of law in California at the present time."

"I resigned my legal position with the Veterans Administration in March of this year under the requirements of the Hatch Act, upon filing for the office of State Assemblyman in our district. However, my accrued terminal or annual leave did not expire until July. I am proud of my six years of service as a government attorney with the Veterans Administration and of the accomplishments of that governmental agency."

"I am proud, too, of the endorsements of my candidacy by every labor organization in the District—endorsements which my opponent tried so hard to get."

"I AM PROUD of the fact that I was successful in obtaining the Democratic nomination for the Assembly in the 10th District without one cent of financial support from any group or individual. Dorothy and I have lived on our accrued annual leave, our refunded retirement-fund payments and our Veterans' Bond savings. We feel that public service without political chicanery is something to strive for, even at the expense of personal sacrifice. I have not been gainfully employed these past few months because I have wanted to devote myself exclusively to the privilege of meeting the people of the district and coming to know them and their problems better. This has been the hardest and the most satisfying work that I have ever done in my 34 years."

"I am running my own campaign without expensive professional public relations staffs. National issues, as well as state and local affairs, are pertinent in this political contest since they reflect the basic community attitudes of two candidates who have never before held public office."

"I DO NOT CONCEAL the fact that I have resided in Contra Costa County a short period of time—but the record should read, in all fairness, that my opponent has lived in the county only about the same length of time."

"I do not conceal the fact that I was employed with the Veterans Administration in San Francisco and in Oakland—but the record should again be corrected to show that my opponent's business interests are centered in Oakland and Alameda County."

"Webster defines 'lobbyist' as 'One who frequents the lobby of a legislative body for the purpose of influencing the action of the members.' Let the people of our district decide whether the glove fits the hand of the Republican candidate!"

Acalanes Parents Back School-Fund Proposals 2, 24

Labeling support of Proposition 2 and 24 as "most urgent" to all of the schools within the Acalanes area, and in the state, Acalanes Superintendent Neil M. Parsons Monday night urged parents and the Acalanes Parents Club to vote "yes" on the two school proposals November 4.

The club unanimously endorsed the two propositions. Parsons stated that the amount of support being given the Acalanes District by the state has grown proportionately smaller over the years, with the state supplying only 27 per cent and the district tax payer providing 73 per cent of the Acalanes District expenditures for the current year.

Proposition 2 would increase the amount given by the state to local school districts for operating funds. Proposition 24 would replenish the state loan fund from which school districts may borrow to build desperately needed classrooms.

The Acalanes superintendent foretold the possibility of double and triple sessions in most grades in the grammar school within the Acalanes area for lack of operating and building funds which would be provided by passage of 2 and 24.

Parsons emphasized that the current state allocation to schools was fixed and determined several years ago and that inflation had seriously weakened today's school dollar.

Other local and state groups supporting Proposition 2 include the Veterans of Foreign Wars of California, California Parent Teachers Association, California Farmers, Inc., Statewide Tax Committee, California State Chamber of Commerce, California State Federation of Labor (AFY) and the California Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

It's Official— Rick's Withdraws Liquor Request

Withdrawal of the application for an on-sale general liquor license for Rick's Drive-In has officially been made, according to James H. Quinn, District 2 State Board of Equalization member.

In a letter to Mrs. Fred Knobel, a leader in the fight against the application, Quinn stated that any further hearings on the application have been canceled.

He was referring to the hearing before the State Board which had been set in Sacramento Thursday. This hearing was arranged following the board's voting several weeks ago to deny the application although the hearing officer at the August 26 Martinez meeting had recommended it be issued.

"I am sure you'll be glad to know this was the final disposition of the case," Quinn said.

Because of this development, plans for a meeting of interested persons, which had been set for Sunday at Acalanes High School, have been stopped.

George Gordon, one of the attorneys for the applicants, stated he received a letter from E. J. Clark, state liquor administrator, which announced that the state board is now making arrangements to refund a $225 deposit the applicants had posted. This deposit will be returned minus the processing costs.

Helen Groves, A. R. Bliesner, and C. J. Garibotti made the application which met with so many protests.

Circulation Club Contest Postponed— Director Injured When Struck by Car

Because of injuries suffered by The Sun's Circulation Club director when she was hit by a car last week, the Circulation Club subscription contest is postponed until some time in the future.

Although the Circulation Club contest of the Walnut Creek Sun, the Lafayette Sun and the Orinda Sun, with $3,000 offered in prizes and cash commissions, was scheduled to start last week, it has been postponed until Oma Perry, the club director, is sufficiently recovered. Miss Perry is an experienced, professional circulation contest director, who has been doing this sort of work for 25 years.

MISS PERRY, whose residence is at 1330 Lincoln Ave., Walnut Creek, has been in Permanente Hospital in Oakland since October 15, wearing a cast because of shoulder and upper arm injuries; she also has leg injuries.

Those who have been nominated to the Circulation Club are asked to turn in any subscriptions they have sold.

THESE SUBSCRIPTIONS must be turned in by this Friday, and points for the contestants will be held in abeyance for them until resumption of the contest. At that time the points will be credited to the contestants.

Miss Perry is under the care of Dr. Arthur H. Beede. She was struck by a jeep driven by Alex Quinton of Concord at Main Street and Ygnacio Boulevard, Walnut Creek, at 5:30 p.m., October 15.

According to Police Officer Dick Quen, she was in the crosswalk with the green light in her favor.

Realtors Hear Lot Size Talk

Members of the Contra Costa Realty Mart last week heard a talk on lot size and zoning by George H. Cardinet Jr.

Les. E. Mullen, president of the Contra Costa Title Company, and M. V. Barnes of Moraga, also spoke on the topic.

Cardinet said subdivisions should be made in quarter-acre lots with large street frontage.

This, he said, would create a labor market, and encourage industries to locate on water fronts nearby.

First Aid Course Given by Red Cross

The Mt. Diablo Chapter of the American Red Cross will give a course in Standard First Aid opening Wednesday, October 29 at 7 p.m.

The course is to be given at the Firehouse on Oak Park Blvd., in Pleasant Hills and the membership is open to anyone over 16 years of age.

Phone Company Starts Gigantic County Program

The Pacific Telephone Company is spending five million dollars in projects now underway or soon to begin in Contra Costa County, according to R. H. Hartsough, Richmond District Manager of the company.

As part of this program, an $82,000 project including two central office equipment additions has been started in Lafayette.

A one story building is near completion and a telephone line extension project along Hunsaker Canyon is planned.

Just begun in Walnut Creek, according to H. C. Greenhalgh, Walnut Creek Phone manager, is a $2,000,000 replacement and enlargement of Walnut Creek's dial central office.

CONSTRUCTION IS in progress on a new two-story office building on Locust Street between Cole and Leavitt streets. The new building will house special equipment to make it possible for Walnut Creek subscribers to dial out-of-town calls direct to most Bay Area exchanges.

Included in the program to expand telephone facilities is the addition scheduled for this year of two new prefixes, Yellowstone 4 and Yellowstone 8 to Walnut Creek telephone numbers. Other projects bring the total to $2,240,000.

To start shortly in Concord, is a $1,500,000 program to replace the present office with one of a larger capacity late in 1954 or early in 1955. Since World War II, successive buildings and building equipment additions have been made to the present Concord dial office in a race to keep up with the demand for service.

An additional $126,000 worth of equipment will be installed in the old office in order to keep up with the demands for service until the new system is placed in operation. This brings the total present and planned gross expenditure in Concord to $1,626,000.

NEW TELEPHONE prefixes Mulberry 2 and Mulberry 5 will be added to Concord telephone numbers late this coming spring as a part of the company's service expansion.

Other county work include alteration, a two-story building in Pittsburg, a new telephone plant in Richmond, additional equipment for Antioch, and construction of a new dial central office building in Brentwood.

A TREMENDOUS amount of telephone equipment is required by the program, said Hartsough, who reported that the cable and wire alone to be placed in conduit or on telephone poles will require over 110,000,000 conductor feet of wire. This represents over 71 tons of copper and better than 43,000 man hours of labor.

In illustration, Hartsough said that if the wires in these two projects were joined together in a straight line, it would reach over 20,000 miles are four-fifths the way around the world.

Hartsough stated that the record telephone expansion program being undertaken by the company has brought about its plans to meet the explosive population growth in Contra Costa County and to provide for the expected future development of the area.

Nearly 300 Scouts Attend Camporee

Nearly 300 Boy Scouts, Explorers and leaders participated in the recent Meridian District Camporee and Swim Meet at St. Mary's College.

Of the 46 patrols competing in the competition, 15 were awarded "Proficient" ribbons, 23 received "Standard" ratings and eight earned "Participating" streamers. Judging for the awards was on the skills shown in preparation for camp, camping cooking, patrol spirit and breaking camp. One Explorer post was awarded a special "Service" ribbon award.

UNDER PREPARATION for camping each patrol was checked on menu, equipment list, attendance on time, check-in sheet completed and registration fees paid, and packs were inspected. Personal appearance was judged with regard to cleanliness and neatness, neckerchiefs, shirt, belt, hat and official khaki pants.

Shelter and sleeping provisions, camp operations, arrangement of camp sites, and patrol organization accounted for one third of the total judging points. Preparation of food, timing of meals and condition of food made up one fourth of the points. Scouts were also judged on the clean-up of their camp sites, preparation of packs for the return home and personal appearance and cleanliness as they checked out.

PATROLS RATED "Proficient" were: Troop 204, Lafayette — Hawk, Panther, Pelican and Rattlesnake; 205, Danville — Donkeys; 207, Orinda — Racoon; 210, Lafayette — Eagle; 214, Walnut Creek — Explorer Crew; 216, Alamo — Indians and Mohawk; 217, Pleasant Hill — Mohawk; 218, Lafayette — Eagle, Woodpecker and Flaming Arrow; 220, Walnut Creek — Grizzly.

STANDARD RATING patrols were: Troop 210, Orinda — Raven; 201, Walnut Creek — Horse; 205, Pleasant Hill — Mohawk; 206, Antelope, Eagle, Bat, Panther; 207, Apache, Fox, Beaver and Grizzly Patrols; 212, Canyon — Panthers; 214, Bat, Wolverine and Beaver; 217, Pleasant Hill — Flying Eagle; 220, Owl; 222, Walnut Creek — Owl.

PARTICIPATING ribbons went to: Troop 207, Bat and Beaver; 214, Oak, Flaming Arrow and Hawk; 209, Panther, Eagle and Owl. Explorer Post 306, Danville, was awarded a "Service" ribbon for its help in conducting the camporee.

Post 303, Walnut Creek, participated in the swim meet, but not in the camporee.

A total of 259 troop and crew members took part, plus 37 leaders, making a total of 296 officially taking part in the affair, which was considered successful by members of the District Committee.

OFFICIALS who conducted the Camporee were Thomas Mika, camping and activities chairman; C. R. Graff, district vice chairman; Jo A. Shockey, Ian McLaughlin, Paul Foster, Ernest Schneider and scoutmasters and committee men from the various troops and posts participating.

Sunday morning services were conducted for Catholics by St. Mary's College, and for Protestants by Elvin R. Gallagher, scoutmaster, Troop 9, Berkeley, who is student body president at the Episcopal Church Divinity School of the Pacific. He was assisted by Explorer Ray Youmans and John S. Youmans, Meridian District scout executive.

HIGH POINT TEAM in the swim meet was Troop 204, which earned enough total points to out-rank Explorer Post 303, pennant winner for the Explorer Division, and Troop 214, first place in the Scout division of the meet. In the special event for scout leaders, Larry Dodge of Troop 222 placed first.

Conducting the swim meet were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hubach. They were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Harold de Laneux, Al and Darrel Heinrich, Leland Arth, Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Kiesel, Mr. and Mrs. Parker Allen, Ted Freedman, Beatrice Bettencourt, Sally Freedman, Sally Pedder, Barbara Stark, Wally Rugh, Richard Jerow and Richard Schaefer.

No doubt about it — the most convenient and most economical shopping is at hometown stores!

An Open Letter to John F. Baldwin

October 22, 1952

Dear Mr. Baldwin:

As a fellow member of the Danville Presbyterian Church, I find myself greatly distressed at the nature of the campaign which is being waged in your behalf. I am appalled and dismayed by the vicious attacks which have been launched against your opponent, Mr. Robert Condon, in an attempt to picture him as a Red sympathizer among other things, for having joined Earl Warren, Harold Stassen and the Presbyterian Church in denouncing the loyalty oath.

I cannot believe that a man of your character and principles would endorse such methods --- such irresponsible smears can only serve to injure your candidacy and your reputation for honesty and fair play.

Therefore, I earnestly urge you to repudiate those of your supporters who so damage your cause by their utter disregard for decency and Christian morality. Until you disavow them, you must bear complete responsibility for their actions.

Sincerely,

David A. Comstock

"Whatever You Do - Vote YES on 2"

OUR SCHOOLS ARE IN TROUBLE! Because of the inflation, soaring birth rate, and huge out-of-State population increase since the end of the War, most school districts in California today just don't have enough money to make ends meet!

PROPOSITION 2 IS THE ANSWER. Proposition 2 gives school children and taxpayers both a break by increasing the State's share of school support—thus keeping our schools open without increasing the tax burden on homeowners.

WE ALL WANT BETTER SCHOOLS. We may differ deeply on election day over candidates and other ballot issues, but we all agree our children's educational needs must be met. That's why Democrats and Republicans, labor, business and farmers, all say: Whatever you do—

Vote "YES" on Proposition 2

Knights, Devils Battle in W. C. Next Thursday

Next Thursday afternoon at 3:30 the Las Lomas Knights will face the Diablo Junior Varsity Devils at the Walnut Creek gridiron, and the Knights will have to be at their best to cop a win.

Reason: The Concord JV Devils, up to yesterday, were riding high and wide, and were in the undefeated class, along with Acalanes and Pittsburg. Diablo met the Pitt Pirate JV eleven yesterday afternoon, too late for results to be reported here—but there's no doubt that the Knights will have a tough job come Thursday.

On the basis of their development, the Knights should give a good account of themselves. Despite the caliber of the JV Pirates, a Las Lomas victory is no out of the realm of possibility.

The Knights traveled to Albany yesterday. On paper it looked like an even chance for them to defeat the Cougar JV. Game time was too late for results to be obtained for this issue; full details will be reported next week.

The Knights have come a long way since the start of the season. Only last week they gave the highly touted Don Babes all the Babes could handle before Las Lomas went down to a 14 to 6 defeat.

Vikings Tackle Panthers After 5 Straight Wins

After five straight victories, East Contra Costa Junior College gets its major grid test of the season tomorrow night, at Salinas when the Vikings tackle the powerful Hartnell J. C. Panthers.

The Vikings will be resuming Coast Conference competition after easily wiping out the Napa J. C. Chiefs 32 - 0 last Saturday night at Concord. Aside from a 12 - 6 loss to a strong Riverside J. C. eleven, the Panthers have turned back all opposition, including defending champion Menlo last Saturday.

COACH HAL BUFFA'S main threats against Hartnell will be halfback L. C. Joyner, quarterback Tommy Kramer and a big, rugged defensive line which includes regulars Jim Pomi and George Kallas both ex-Acalanes stars.

Joyner rang up 20 points on three touchdowns and two extra points against Napa. The former Pittsburg High star tallied on a 47-yard pass play from Kramer in the first quarter, a nine-yard off-tackle slant in the third period and a fourth quarter 51-yard interception.

BOB BORGHESANI, all-around star at Acalanes last season, was a standout on both offensive and defense. The big end caught five of seven passes thrown for 66 yards gained. One was a sensational circus catch in the fourth quarter which he juggled in the air, finally coming down with it. "Borgo" also set up the final touchdown when he recovered a fumble by the Napa safety man on the two-yard line from where halfback Chad Curtis of Brentwood scored.

The Vikings will depart from the East Campus at 10 a. m. tomorrow for Salinas. Ex-Acalanes High stars who will make the trip include ends Borghesani and Don Kun, Tackle Jim Pomi, Guard George Kallas and halfback John Daniels.

That Bye Helped Dons Size Up Crockett Indians

The Don Varsity had a bye last week, and the coaches took the opportunity to look other clubs over, with special attention being given to the John Swett Indians of Crockett, whom the Dons host tonight.

Purpose of this look-see was to help the Dons set up defensive and offensive plans for tonight's game. Good scouting can reveal length as well as weakness, and often is the determining factor in how a game comes out.

JV COACHES Bob Stevens and Gene Ridley have been most helpful with their scouting, and their reports have given much valuable information.

Recent practice sessions have been devoted to problems of defense and offense as concerns John Swett. How well it will pay off, will be told tonight.

ONE UNUSUAL PLAY which confused many occurred in the Acalanes-Albany game October 10, when two players from Albany and one from Acalanes caught a forward pass at the same time.

The Dons threw the pass and the ball went to them when the referee ruled a tie ball, as the rule book states that in event of a tie ball on a pass or fumble, the ball goes to the team that was on the offense.

It doesn't occur often, but when it does, the offensive team gets the break.

More Elation Over Locker, Dry Room— There's Good Reason for Enthusiasm!

BY ERWIN MATTSO

MORE ABOUT THE MOST RECENT ADDITION to Acalanes High School athletic facilities—the new locker and drying room. This addition was briefly described in this column last week, but it's important enough to merit further detail.

The room was completed some time ago but the steel strike delayed arrival of the lockers as well as hangers for the dry room. The lockers were installed last week and are now in full operation. There are 124 of them and they stand five feet high, which gives ample room for the player to stow his gear. The lockers were to be used by the various sports as they come in season.

The dry room provides an area where the athletes can dry out their gear. Special heavy duty hangers enable a football player to put all his gear in the dry room which is heated by means of a special blower heater.

The result is that gear is completely dry in a few hours. In addition to making gear more comfortable to wear, it results in the equipment lasting much longer because of being dried out each day.

The new lockers have also provided relief in the main locker room. Football players had been using the large lockers normally used by the physical education classes.

Each boy in physical education has a small locker and a large locker next to it. The large lockers for the past few years, out of necessity, have been occupied by boys in athletics and thus were unavailable to the P. E. classes. Much to everyone's happiness, the new lockers have now relieved that situation.

NOTICE where Billy Rupp has just returned from overseas duty and is enjoying his return to the good old U. S. with a spanking brand new convertible.

Billy is a former Don athlete who, although small was a great performer. In football he was a regular left half whose speed and ruggedness made him one of the county's best.

In fact, it was Bill who at 137 pounds teamed with Jim Gibson at the other half to defeat Pittsburg in an upset win back in 1946. The final score was 16-12 in a wild and wooly game which found the two seat back running Pittsburg ragged all through the contest.

Bill looked pretty fair sized along side of Jim, who stopped the scales at 125. Both possessed speed, with Bill the record holder in the 50 yard dash, while Jim copped the county title in the 440.

ANOTHER EX-DON athlete, who paid a visit to the school the past week is Dick Welch, who was a top light halfback for the Dons not so long ago. Dick was a speed-burner and did a bit of fooling for the St. Mary's Frosh before going into the service.

INCIDENTALLY, I plan to see a couple of ex-Don greats on the athletic field this weekend when I fly south to see the Bear-Trojan game. On Sunday I expect to see the Los Angeles Rams play and to see Stubby Van Brocklin, former Don in action.

Stub is one of the nation's best passers and has led the professional league on two occasions in aerial work. He was rated as an All-American while at Oregon University.

Another ex-Don in the L. A. area is Roger Harding, who made All-American center in his Junior year at the University of California. Roger played pro ball for several years before retiring to a successful business life in Los Angeles.

Prof. Peerless Picks 'Em Again

By PROF. PEERLESS
The old crystal ball was bright as a star last week and the old Professor came through with some startling choices, to pick 10 out of 10, making it 19 out of 20 for the season. That means .90 average!

The Contra Costa High School league gets tougher each week, but Antioch figures to take Alhambra 20-6.

PITTSBURG AND DIABLO tangle in the big one, and it's Pittsburg 20, Diablo 13. The game is at Pittsburg and that gives the Pitt Pirates a definite edge.

The Acalanes Dons came home to meet up with John Swett's best, and it's a close go. The Dons here, 14-13.

IN THE PACIFIC Coast Conference, California's Golden Bears play a top game, to edge a fighting Trojan team 20-19. The winner of this smells Roses.

Stanford comes back, but not strong enough, with Washington's Don Heinrich throwing the pigskin a bit better than Stanford's Bob Garrett. Washington 21, Stanford 14.

U.C.L.A. MEETS a toughie in Wisconsin and will not be going all out, looking to the Cal game next week. Wisconsin 20, U.C.L.A. 7.

Santa Clara bursts Idaho's bubble, the score, 20-13.

Oregon finally wins one over Montana by a 26-13 score.

Cal Poly registers a 32-6 win over Pepperdine, while Santa Barbara defeats San Francisco State 26-13.

That's it for this week—read 'em and check 'em, but don't bet 'em.

Whose Scalp -- Dons, Indians?

The Acalanes Dons meet their toughest foe in league play to date when they tackle the highly rated John Swett eleven under the lights of Acalanes Memorial Field at 8 o'clock tonight.

The Dons at this point are undefeated in league play, having measured Alhambra High 34 - 13 and defeated Albany by a 20 - 6 count.

Crockett, on the other hand, dropped out to Diablo 20 - 0 when every break went against them.

They lost league tilt number 2 when Pittsburg scored 21 points in the first half only to be hanging on the ropes when time ran out with a final 21 - 13 score as Crockett displayed a brilliant running and passing game.

In Dick Zampa, Ray Vallejo, Don Angotti and Gordon Harrah, the Crockett Indians appear to have one of the county's stoutest backfields.

Their line is a veteran and aggressive one, bolstered by a stand-out tackle in John Foley, who also does some fancy linebacking. Dino Da Rey at end looks to be one of the better flankmen in high school circles.

The Dons started slow this year and have developed gradually as a team. The Don reserves in particular have improved and appear ready to give the regulars some needed relief.

Jim Small and Jerry Henderson will start as ends for the Dons, while Andy Monsen and Jim Champion will be at the tackle spots.

Gary Howerton will start at center, with Bill Johnson and George Fortado as guards.

In the backfield, quarterback Sam Indelicato is slated to start while Lou Schreppel gets the call at fullback. Roger Owen and Jim Burns start at the halfback positions.

Fred Rauazza is a regular on defensive half and will do a bit of duty at offensive half as well.

Mike White takes over the offensive end spot with Dave Larsen starting at defensive left tackle.

A SURPRISE STARTER is Paul Baiz, who gets to go as defensive safety, due to his rapid improvement.

Don Davis is another who will see fullback duty, with Ray Williams.

Antioch Next Week's Foe for Dons, J.V.

The Acalanes JV eleven meets yesterday afternoon and were favored to take the win from a not too strong Swett, Club, which had been losing each week. However, results were not available for this issue of THE SUN.

THE ACALANES VARSITY travels next Friday night, October 31, and meets up at 8 o'clock with an Antioch eleven that figures to make the Dons go all out.

Antioch, under Coach Riggins, who is in his first year there, has been an in-and-out.

In some games they have looked like league champs, while in others they have slacked off with their low 42 to 7 loss to Pittsburg after being tied 7 to 7 most of the first half.

THEY BOAST a brilliant passing attack and have runners who can go all the way.

Antioch operates from a version of the split T and can give lots of trouble with its quick openers.

A better comparison can be made after the Dons' game with John Swett and Antioch's game with Alhambra tonight. Swett defeated Antioch 13 to 0, while Acalanes trimmed the Alhambra Bulldogs 34 to 13.

Baldwin Endorsed By Dr. C. L. Abbott

Dr. C. L. Abbott of Richmond, county coroner, one of Contra Costa's most widely known and loved citizens, and county-wide chairman of the Citizen's Committee for Proposition No. 3, today endorsed John F. Baldwin for election as Congressman of the new Sixth District of Contra Costa and Solano Counties.

The pioneer physician, who has served the county as coroner for thirty-four years, declared:

"It is my considered judgement that John Baldwin is best equipped to serve the people of Contra Costa and Solano Counties."

Chatting with Miss Sunad

Dear Readers,
Many of you call every week and write notes. Although I usually just follow your instructions and put in your ads, today I would like, in a way, to answer.

I feel that I know you very well. You are married, and have two and a half children, love living in the valley, you belong to a local club or two and you are interested in people.

Some of you read all of the news in the classified columns every week. News about new families who are looking for homes here; news of a child who has lost a pet, one that you might watch for; part time jobs that are offered for extra Christmas money; someone is driving East, or there is just the item for sale that you have been looking for.

Yes, the Classified columns are packed with news as well as opportunities and services.

Recently Mrs. C. E. Bray, of 1766 Sunnyvale Avenue, Walnut Creek, put in this ad:

BOY'S 28" Schwinn bicycle, in excellent condition. $22.50, Walnut Creek 6586.

She sold it to the first person who saw it and now some little boy is happy. But unfortunately she had only one bicycle and a number of people who called were disappointed.

Do you have a bicycle that has been outgrown or is extra? Mothers and Fathers, even boys and girls, who have saved up their money, are hoping that you will offer it in these classified columns.

I'll write again soon and let me hear from you too.

Sincerely,
Miss Sunad

Candidates Asked Questions by Sun

As a public service, The SUN has asked the Republican and Democratic candidates for Congress from the 6th District and for State Assembly from the 10th District questions which we believe the voters here would like to have answered.

The candidates are asked to have their answers turned in to us by next Monday, so that they may be published in next week's issue. The request is for answers limited to 100 words per question, unless the candidate feels strongly that more words are required to state his views.

All the following 12 questions have been asked of Congressional candidates John F. Baldwin Jr., Republican, and Robert L. Condon, Democrat. Only questions 1 and 10 have been asked of Assembly candidates Doald D. Doyle, Republican, and Harold E. Mutnick, Democrat.

1. HOW MUCH WILL BE SPENT on your campaign from the beginning through the general election? (Estimate of expenditures from all sources as well as your own pocket.)
2. Do you approve or disapprove of the Taft-Hartley Law?
3. Do you favor or oppose a federal FEPC law?
4. Do you favor or oppose federal control of the California tidelands?
5. Is communist infiltration in our government a major problem?
6. What do you think of Senator McCarthy?
7. Do you have any specific suggestions to eliminate the "mess in Washington"?
8. Do you favor or oppose a national compulsory health insurance plan?
9. Generally, do you agree with the platform of your party? If you disagree in part, on what specifically?
10. Are you for or against State Proposition No. 3 (tax exemption for parochial schools)?
11. Do you believe foreign aid should be continued at its present scale, should it be limited, or eliminated entirely?
12. What is your opinion of the proposal that the South Koreans can be trained to continue the Korean war, so that our troops can be withdrawn?

THE CANDIDATES have been informed that in addition to the questions and the answers to them, The SUN will print a 300-word statement from each candidate on any subject.

Each candidate is asked to submit a statement along with the answers to the questions, if he wishes to make the statement.

The Freeway Dream

An Editorial

The other morning we drove from Walnut Creek to Oakland in 15 minutes.

Of course, we were dreaming. The freeway was in; traffic was rolling along, no stop signs, no turns, a half-dozen lanes, no pedestrians.

But all a dream. And from the looks of things, it'll remain so unless something is done. So far, just a little has been done, and that by a handful of people.

For instance, yesterday, a bus-load went up to Sacramento to apply a little pressure on the State Highway Commission. These same people have been doing the same thing periodically. Anytime the commission meets, they, at their own expense and time, put in an appearance and their two cents worth.

But that's only a handful: three-dozen people, about one-thousandth of the population in the Walnut Creek area alone. Now, consider if all of us put in a word. If nothing else, it'd make a lot of noise and maybe somebody would sit up and notice. One pin dropped doesn't impress. But drop a million together — and at least you've got a mess on your hands.

Now, what to do? Well, for one thing, there's an election coming up in less than two weeks. Find out what the candidates' views are and vote accordingly. At least, make them promise something.

Then write letters; write to your Assemblyman, to your Senator, to the papers. If you're taking an active part in your community now, bring up the subject. Hash it over. Put up a scream.

Basically, we live in a bedroom community. The greater percentage living out here work elsewhere. The average commuter working in Oakland loses from an hour to two hours just in traveling. And that's not totting up his frayed nerves.

Well, we could go on and on. But we merely wanted to get the general idea across. Get working. Take ten minutes off some night and scribble out a letter to us or to Sacramento or the Highway Commission. Let your feeling on the subject be known. Get mad, even.

We, ourself, are getting pretty tired of paying gas tax and so forth, but not getting anything done to the roads we use most frequently.

So, let's all get together and start doing something. We, for one, would like to see that dream we had come true.

Local Art Work To Be Displayed

Various items created by local artists will be displayed at the Artists Market, 1045 Stuart Street, Lafayette, during the month of November and December.

Prints, jewelry, ceramics and textiles are among the articles which will be on display and which will make excellent gifts for Christmas giving.

The exhibit of children's art will continue at the market until next Friday, and visits from various Lafayette Brownie and Girl Scout groups have been arranged. Information on visits to the market may be obtained from Mrs. John Ellis at Lafayette 2930.

Teeter Says Proposition A Would Save Taxpayers $250,000 in Next 20 Years

County Proposition A — the $1,350,000 bond issue proposal for construction of a county office building in Richmond — will, if approved by the necessary two-thirds vote, save Contra Costa taxpayers a quarter of a million dollars in the next 20 years, County Administrator D. M. Teeter states.

The proposition will be on the November 4 ballot. Present method of providing space in Richmond for county offices is by rental from private owners. Teeter said this program is unsatisfactory to the public, inefficient and more costly than a county-owned building.

The Board of Supervisors has investigated the plan of acquiring a building by ultimate exercise of an option in a long-term lease. Under this plan, private capital would construct the building and the county then take over on a long-term lease.

SAYS BOND ISSUE IS CHEAPER

Teeter said that this program, better than renting at scattered locations, is more costly than a bond issue, the difference being 4 to 4½ per cent interest paid on the long-term lease, while the bond issue interest would run from 2 to 2½ per cent.

Branch offices are needed in Richmond, and to insure effective and economical administration, a county-owned building there is considered the most economical arrangement, Teeter declared.

COUNTY APPOINTS SCHOOL SITE COMMITTEE

Inquiry into possibility that school sites may be set aside in rapidly-developing areas of the county before land costs become prohibitive or no suitable sites remain, will be made by a committee named by the Board of Supervisors.

Recommendation of such a committee was made by Henry L. Morrison Jr., secretary of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association.

Membership in the committee will be as follows: The county administrator, county superintendent of schools, superintendents of the Mt. Diablo Unified High School, Acalanes Union High School, and Richmond Elementary-High School Districts; the county health officer, manager of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District, one representative of city managers and administrators within the county, the county planning technician, county road commissioner, the district attorney, and Morrison.

Politicians Battle at Acalanes This Tuesday Night

Veterans To Hear General Wilson

Major General Arthur Wilson will speak to veterans for Eisenhower from Orinda, Lafayette and Walnut Creek Tuesday at the Community Theater in Pittsburg at 8 p.m.

Major General Wilson will talk on the European situation and the relationship of the United States to it.

He was the first American general to land in Africa and later had charge of the continental advance forces in France.

Veterans will have an interest in this meeting although it will be held on the same night as the Sun's sponsored free political rally at Acalanes High School.

Senator Miller Endorses Condon

"Election to Congress is a promotion Assemblyman Bob Condon richly deserves," State Senator George Miller Jr. said recently in endorsing the congressional candidacy of Condon.

"If past performance is any indication of future promise, then the successful fight that Bob Condon has waged for two terms in the California State Legislature in the interests of Contra Costa County is only a preliminary sample of the outstanding manner in which he will serve the peoples of Solano and Contra Costa Counties in the new 6th Congressional District," he said.

Condon Receives Adlai's Endorsement

Governor Adlai Stevenson, Democratic presidential nominee, has unqualifiedly endorsed the candidacy of Robert L. Condon for Congress in Contra Costa and Solano counties.

The announcement came from Stevenson during his motor tour from San Francisco through Richmond and Vallejo.

At both stops, where the Illinois governor made brief addresses, and where he was introduced by Condon, he asked his supporters to send "men like Condon to Congress where the laws are made."

"I am extremely proud," Condon said, "to be running on the same ticket and platform with a man of Adlai Stevenson's integrity, ability and sincerity."

New Baldwin Backers

A special committee to campaign for the election of John F. Baldwin, Republican candidate for Congress, has recently been started by a group of Orinda Democrats.

Directors include Douglas Killingsworth, Mrs. Canway Sears, J. Loyd O'Connell, Mrs. Charles E. Coburn Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson and Joe Navone.

Republicans Answer Query on "Vandals"

In reply to "hints" by the Democratic Party in Contra Costa County that Republican vandals might be tearing down Condon quarter-cards from telephone poles, the Republican headquarters in Lafayette has stated:

"When our boys were out to hang the cards of candidates, Donald D. Doyle and John Baldwin, it was found that nearly every Condon card was covering one of John Baldwin."

"Surely, the good people of the Democratic Party realize that this is a most unsportsmanlike gesture and will hasten to instruct their worker to stop this practice."

"In addition, any tearing down of Condon cards was done entirely without the sanction of this or any other Republican office."

GOP Cable Car

Republican election enthusiasm reached a peak last Friday when a cable car, mounted on a sound truck and duly decorated with Eisenhower and Nixon signs, spent the day in Pittsburg. The car was manned by women from the Orinda-Lafayette-Walnut Creek area who gave out Ike stickers, pins and literature.

"Mexican Fiesta" To Honor Condon

A gala "Mexican Fiesta" honoring Congressional candidate Robert L. Condon, will be held at the Orinda home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Corona, 1 Seaside Court, on Sunday, November 2, between 3 and 10 p.m.

The Fiesta will feature such prominent stars of the entertainment world as Abigail Alvarez and Aurora Lopez, well known Mexican song stylist, Mexican dancers and guitar players.

The admission price of $1.50 will include an authentic Mexican supper prepared by Mexican chefs, Jesusita Vizcarro and Adelaide Romano.

Tickets are on sale at the Democratic headquarters in Richmond, Martinez, Concord and Walnut Creek. The Walnut Creek headquarters are at 2009 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek 7944.

Welsh Backs Doyle

Don Doyle, the Republican nominee in the 10th Assembly District, was given new support this week by Harmon E. Welsh, who polled more than 6000 votes as a Democratic contender in the June primary.

"I have been a Democrat for 22 years and my support of Mr. Doyle should not be construed as a bolt from the party," Welsh said.
